

OAK STREET RECOVERY HOUSE

On your journey to recovery from substance use disorders, CHR provides Real Hope and support as you transition into a new life.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

Oak Street Recovery House is a supervised transitional house for individuals in recovery from substance use. With five male beds and five female beds, individuals may stay at Oak Street for up to 90 days. No direct services are provided at Oak Street; individuals are expected to be connected to case management and ambulatory treatment services during their stay.

- The Oak Street Recovery House also provides transitional housing for individuals who are waiting for a bed at a residential treatment program.
- Clients not seeking a continued treatment program are expected to be seeking out employment, identifying natural resources for continued housing and treatment needs.
- Clients already on Methadone or Suboxone MAT maintenance program are welcome.
- All clients in Oak Street will be tested for substance use.

HOURS OF OPERATION:

Oak Street is open 24 hours a day, 7 days per week, and 365 days a year.

ADMISSIONS:

Clients' referring agent may call Oak St Recovery House during regular business hours to set up a phone screening. Clients are admitted 7 days per week. Individuals must have Eastern Region Service Center case manager and be eligible/receiving State Administered General Assistance
