

Assessment Center

Asking for help for a mental health or substance abuse disorder might be one of the hardest things a person will ever do. At CHR, we're here to listen and offer real hope.

Whether you're calling for yourself or referring someone else, asking for help is hard. If you're trying to find the right service, or just someone to listen to your concerns, help is a phone call away. CHR's Assessment Center is a team of caring professionals, including licensed and Master's level clinicians who provide a first step toward positive and lasting change.

YOU TALK. WE LISTEN.

If you or someone you care about needs help, the Assessment Center team is ready to listen. During the call, our attentive staff will discuss your concerns, and ask questions about health history, previous treatment and any medications. After learning about your needs, our staff will recommend the best treatment options. We'll also answer questions, discuss program eligibility requirements, process insurance information and schedule an appointment. If necessary we will link you to other providers to best meet your needs.

WE ENCOURAGE CALLS TO:

- Receive information about available behavioral health services
- Learn about and schedule services
- Receive immediate assistance during a crisis situation due to behaviors or symptoms related to mental illness or substance abuse
