

Housing Services

At CHR, we believe that affordable and safe housing is a critical component to support recovery and optimal health.

CHR's Homeless and Housing programs help hundreds of individuals and families find and maintain housing. All of our homeless and housing services use a person-centered approach that tailor services based on individual need and preference. Additionally, all of CHR's mental health and wellness services are available to individuals in our Housing programs, when needed.

HOMELESS DIVERSION SERVICES

- Time-limited phone-based or in-person services for those experiencing a housing emergency that could not be resolved through an initial call to 211
- Services may include mediation, systems navigation, resources and referrals, linkage to homeless shelters or homeless outreach, as applicable, and one-time financial assistance when appropriate and available.

HOMELESS OUTREACH AND ENGAGEMENT SERVICES

- Provides homeless outreach, canvassing and case management for eligible individuals.
- For ongoing services, participants must have a significant mental health issue.
- Programs include PATH and Homeless to Housing which serve the Greater Hartford communities.
- Referrals may come from community providers, concerned citizens, individuals experiencing homelessness.
- Assists with system navigation, linkage to housing, medical/mental health services as well as benefits, entitlements and/or employment.

RAPID RE-HOUSING (RRH) PROGRAM

- Links families and individuals in the Greater Hartford, Greater New Britain, and Bristol regions who are experiencing literal homelessness to resources and housing.
- Program participants are eligible for short-term rental assistance as well as housing stabilization supports.
- Assists with linkage to employment resources, community supports, as well as entitlements and benefits.

PERMANENT SUPPORTIVE HOUSING PROGRAMS

We provide rental assistance and supportive services for those who are homeless and have a disabling mental health conditions.

- Next Steps Program/Scattered Site programs in Enfield, Manchester, and Willimantic.
- Pilots Program in Manchester and East Hartford.
- Manchester Supportive Housing Program in Manchester.
- Center Street Apartments (1 & 2) in Manchester (also offers affordable housing).
- Healthy Homes: Rental assistance and supportive housing for individuals who are homeless or at risk of homelessness and are living with HIV or AIDs.
- Promise House: Non-time-limited housing for young adults aged 18-25. Services include a rental subsidy and on-site case management.

Referrals for CHR housing programs (RRH and PSH) come directly from the Coordinated Access Network. Referrals for Homeless Diversion and Outreach can be initiated through 211, self-referral, or the community.

CHR's homeless and housing services aim to provide not only short-term basic needs but also support and planning to ensure long-term stability and meaningful connections within their community. Placement in services depends on eligibility, prioritization, and availability.
